 - members of the executive will hold a buffer of $1 and $2 coinage to break $5 or $10 notes to cover the necessary physical payments to the club tin (which is then banked)

Form structure on the bottom of each page of the 'Pluckers Sign-On Sheet'

2. Membership fees and subscriptions

- an entrance fee of four dollars cash* is the only 'membership' fee for those who attend each weekly gathering
 - the treasurer holds a caché of $1 and $2 coins as a way to quickly break down $5, $10 or $20 notes from members
- *if a particular weekly gathering's room hire fee is not approximated the treasurer calls for an equal share top-up from those present to approximate the hire fee (in $1 portions)
 - example 1: the room hire fee is $30 but only five people turn up ... $4 \times 5 = $20$... so the treasurer calls for an extra $2 from each participant to make $30 ... $(4+2) \times 5 = $30$
 - example 2: the room hire fee is $30 but only four people turn up ... $4 \times 4 = $16$... so the treasurer calls for an extra $2 from each participant to approximate ... $(4+3) \times 4 = $28$
 - example 3: the room hire fee is $30 and twelve people turn up ... $12 \times 4 = $48$... so the whole $48 is banked with the extra revenue going towards
 - forward payment of room hire or
 - free refreshments in the first half hour of kitchen hire

3. Members' liability
